The Angelots: Dr. Hecquez's Dragees

110 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Silk

Diameter : 28,5 cm

Description

Technique: Chromolithograph on silk, stretched on a circular brass support with a hanging system. Printer: Montaigu, Paris. Late 19th-century pharmaceutical advertising element for Dragees du Docteur Hecquez (with sesquibromide iron). The composition shows three cherubs in a group in the center, surrounded by stylized foliage. The whole is rendered in light tones, typical of Belle Époque advertising images. Condition: Very good overall condition. Small tear and slight wear on the edge of the frame on the left. Minor manufacturing flaw around the edge. See photographs.
