Description

Signed Alabaster Sculpture "PUGIS" - Art Nouveau, circa 1890-1910Elegant alabaster sculpture depicting two young children tenderly embracing, rendered with remarkable softness and naturalism. The piece is signed PUGIS, referring to Guglielmo Pugi (1850-1915), the noted Tuscan sculptor and representative of the Italian Art Nouveau movement.The composition is distinguished by its refined modeling, delicate facial expressions, and fluid drapery. The alabaster, with its beautiful translucency, retains its original satin polish, enhancing the subtle play of light across the surface.Dimensions: H 35 cm - W 35 cm - D 18 cmCondition: Excellent condition, no chips, cracks, or restorations.A fine decorative work, exemplifying the quality and craftsmanship of late 19th-century Tuscan
