Description

Bust-length portrait of a woman from Arles, wearing the traditional dark mantilla and a light-colored bodice closed at the neck. Her gaze is direct, the brushwork free and visible, particularly in the background enlivened by broad strokes. The warm complexions and delicately enhanced lips lend presence and character to the whole. Oil on panel, early 20th century. Presented in an oval giltwood frame with beaded decoration, complemented by a modern display frame that elegantly enhances the work.
