Description

An elegant pair of finely chased and gilded Louis XVI style wall sconces, each with two lights. The central stem is shaped like a fluted quiver surmounted by a rich basket of blooming roses. The lower section terminates in a finial adorned with acanthus leaves and a ribbon scroll. The two lights, in a scrolled bracket shape, are decorated with foliage and support sockets with gadroons and water lily motifs. In very good condition. Free shipping within France and Corsica.
