Description

An exceptional coffee or game table from the early 19th century, exquisitely crafted in Florence, rare for its quality of execution and striking visual impact. The elegantly veneered walnut top is embellished with a refined maple inlaid chessboard, perfectly integrated into the surface, a sign of its refined and convivial purpose. An absolutely unique element is the spectacular underlying decoration, composed of a sculptural intertwining of finely carved snakes, which dynamically twist together to form the central support. The sculptural rendering, attention to detail, and naturalistic forms testify to the high level of craftsmanship and neoclassical taste, with symbolic accents typical of the period. The contoured base, solid and balanced, completes the piece, lending it stability and
