Description

Portrait of a Young Woman with a Pearl Necklace, French School, circa 1830. Oil on canvas. Very good overall condition. Framed, 78 x 67 cm. This portrait depicts a young woman in bust form, her hair styled in delicate ringlets. She wears a black dress with a low neckline trimmed with light tulle, adorned with a pearl necklace and earrings. A red shawl rests on her arm. The smooth treatment of the face, the soft modeling, and the characteristic hairstyle place the work in the years 1828-1835, a period of transition between the Restoration and the beginning of the July Monarchy. A charming portrait in the tradition of French portrait painters influenced by the Neoclassical aesthetic still prevalent at that time.
