

Silver Jug

2 500 EUR

Signature : Francois Durand (recu en 1828)

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

A Restoration period silver jug resting on three lion's paw feet. It features a ovoid shape with a rich palmette decoration, crowned by a decor of water leaf friezes that repeats at the level of the lid. A bulbous finial adorns the pot. The latter includes an ebony winding handle that ends in a floral rose and a zoomorphic spout with a swan's head connected to the body by a richly decoration. Height: 32 cm Weight: 852 g
Hallmarked with the Veillard mark (1818-1838)
Silversmith: François Durand (received in 1828) written in full

Dealer

Assour & Sumer

Orfèvrerie et argenterie, arts de la table

Mobile : 0680387535

village notre Dame , 61 rue notre Dame

Bordeaux 33000