Description

A circular coffee table from the 1930 production, manufactured by Marcel Ducrot in Autun (71). It is listed in their 1930 catalog No. 6, reference 304 bis. The circular top, with its wide, rounded "cabaret" shape, features a central motif inscribed within a dodecagon (12 sides), composed of stylized flowers and leaves alternating with small mother-of-pearl lozenges. It rests on four fluted, spindle-shaped legs connected by four wide stretchers. A typical piece of furniture from the period and in the Art Deco style, in very good condition, made of solid mahogany and mahogany burl.
