Description

A set of three 19th-century stools in the Napoleon III style, a high period. A very interesting set in excellent condition, both in terms of woodwork and upholstery. The woodwork has a beautiful patina, and the leather seats are in very good condition. These stools are particularly interesting because they are carved on all sides and could be placed in the center of a room. A very decorative set, influenced by the 17th century in a stately style, made for a fine private mansion. Given the condition of these seats, they are suitable for everyday use. A rare and very high-quality set.
Seat height: 46 cm
