Description

Scandinavian teak dining table, Denmark, 1960s. This Danish teak dining table, typical of 1960s Scandinavian design, features clean, balanced lines. The rectangular top has a discreet apron and tapered legs, visually lightening the overall look. Extendable model: two side leaves allow you to increase the length for easy seating. The teak has a beautiful warmth and the wood grain is clearly visible, with a simple finish that blends seamlessly into any interior. Discover all our other products on our website:
