Description

Art Deco cheval mirror by Octave Dupont, 1930s. This Art Deco cheval mirror from the 1930s, signed Octave Dupont, comes from a cabinetmaker's workshop in Northern France. The piece is distinguished by its superb knotty walnut veneer, with continuous swirling grain from the drawers to the apron, giving it a very warm and unique character. The large oval tilting mirror is framed by two small symmetrical cabinets, each with two drawers, resting on tapered legs typical of the period. The whole offers ample storage while remaining shallow, ideal for a bedroom or dressing room. A remarkable piece of cabinetmaking, both decorative and functional, for lovers of Art Deco and fine wood. Discover all our other products on our website:
