Description

Elegant Napoleon III period mirror in carved wood and stucco, finely gilt with gold leaf, featuring a refined neoclassical inspired design. The pediment is adorned with a swan with outstretched wings set within a floral wreath, framed by garlands, ribbons and twisted decorative elements. The composition is well balanced and delicately sculpted, characteristic of 19th century decorative taste. The original beveled glass is preserved. The silvering shows two very slight and discreet spots, barely noticeable to the eye, and not affecting the overall decorative appeal. The back retains its original 19th century wooden panel. The structure is perfectly sound and stable. Secure wall hanging system. The original gilding has been preserved, showing a beautiful natural patina with light wear consistent
