Description

A lovely pair of chrome-plated brass wall-mounted display cabinets. -Each opens with a front door to reveal two removable and height-adjustable glass shelves.-They have their original locks and keys. The backs are mirrored. A protective metal sheet is located on the rear. -One cabinet bears the Loris Azzaro mark, the other Estée Lauder. These advertising inscriptions were added later. -The sides feature attractive opalescent glass panels with a typical Art Deco cut. -Fine work by the Siegel company, circa 1930.
