Description

First half of the 20th century, probably Russian. A duck carved from lapis lazuli, inlaid with red jasper, malachite, and black agate, adorned with silver feathers and feet. This charming figurine rests on a lapis lazuli base. In good condition. A line in the base, but stable. A few small chips on one side of the base, barely noticeable. The duck is complete. Some normal veining in the lapis lazuli, as expected. A small line in the tail. See photos. A magnificent collector's piece, ideal for collectors of birds carved from semiprecious stones and cabinet objects of curiosities. Dimensions: 13.5 x 10.5 x 12 cm / 901 g
