Description

Important 18th-century carved wooden sculpture depicting a solemn male figure, likely representing a young warrior or allegorical character, crafted in Italy. The work is executed in solid wood, finely carved in high relief. The figure remains partially attached to the background, reflecting a decorative typology characteristic of 18th-century Italian carving. The dynamic posture and expressive detailing highlight the sculptural quality and the craftsmanship of the period. An impressive and decorative antique sculpture, ideal for collectors of sacred or allegorical art and for prestigious classical interiors. Origin: Italy Period: 18th century (1700s) Dimensions: 145h cm
