Description

An Art Deco vase in multi-layered glass, signed Le Verre Français, "Garances" model, decorated with long, cascading floral stems. The tapered body is enlivened with stylized floral silhouettes in reserve, acid-etched in deep red tones against a mottled pinkish-purple background, creating a strong contrast typical of Charles Schneider's work. The upper section features a narrowed cone-shaped opening that emphasizes the vase's slender form, resting on a dark circular foot that visually balances the composition. This madder flower motif, with its vertical stems punctuated by small corollas, perfectly illustrates the stylized floral aesthetic of French Art Deco.
