Description

Bronze sculpture known as "Horse at the Gate." Signed Pierre Jules MENE in relief on the base. No foundry mark. This sculpture is the work of Parisian Pierre-Jules Mêne, one of the most famous representatives of French animal sculpture in the 19th century. Pierre-Jules Mêne created the plaster version of this model in 1846, then modeled a bronze version the same year in his studio; it was exhibited at the Paris Salon of 1849. This casting is probably from the early 20th century but is faithful to the 19th-century editions. The overall condition is good with a nuanced brown patina.
