The overall design features clean, architectural lines characteristic of Nordic design from the 1960s and 70s, combining functionality with elegant materials. Interior layout: An integrated bar area with bottle rack; three shelves; a mirrored back panel in the bar area; multiple closed storage compartments. The drawer pulls are made of wood and brass, providing a refined contrast with the rosewood and chrome. An "Uppenkamp Wohnmöbel" label and a "Made in Sweden" stamp attest to its origin.
