Description

Beautiful painting representing Saint Francis in ecstasy. The pictorial sphere is that of the Tuscan-Roman workers operating within the Papal State during the first half of the 17th century. The frame in imitation marble lacquer and gilded corners engraved with plant motifs is contemporary with the canvas. The painting is on the first canvas, so never cleaned or relined. His canvas measures 104cm x 94cm, of which the frame is 123cm x 113cm. We attach to the sale the certificate of authenticity on the painting and on the frame.
