Description

A set comprising a plaster wall display stand with a superb patina and three antique pipes. A rare piece of folk art from the first half of the 20th century (circa 1930-1940). The stand is decorated with four faces of friendly "grumpy old men" with original polychromy in burnt sienna tones, creating a striking relief. Beautiful, authentic patina. Original mounting with two rings on the back, ready to hang.
