Description

This painting depicts a pastoral and bucolic scene, full of gentleness and light. At the heart of the composition, large trees with luminous foliage spread their branches above a few country houses with brown roofs, partially hidden by the vegetation. The palette is dominated by soft, natural greens, subtly nuanced, which convey a peaceful and sunny atmosphere. Light seems to filter through the leaves, creating a delicate play of shadows on the grass and adding depth and dimension to the whole. Technique: oil on wood. Condition: good condition, some signs of wear. Period: early 20th century. Unsigned. Dimensions: 40 x 26.5 cm
