Description

Two-part buffet from the Loire Valley region, dating from the 18th century. The doors are molded in the Louis XV style, and the fluting is in the Louis XVI style on both sections of the piece. The ironwork is original. The lower section has two drawers, each carved with a fruit basket on the frieze of the upper section and a Maltese cross on the lower section. Several shelves are located inside for storage. This piece is in good working order; nothing needs to be done.
