Description

Description Alberto Muñoz Boquera presents a large oil on canvas still life depicting a studio arrangement of books, ceramics, a painter's palette, and a guitar set within a shelving interior. The vertically structured composition organizes open volumes, rolled paper, glazed jugs, glass bottles, and a wooden instrument into a balanced, compartmentalized space. The palette is dominated by earthy browns, muted blues, olive greens, and warm ochres, with thicker paint application visible on the artist's palette. Light enters from the right, creating soft shadow contrasts that define form and spatial depth. The subject and arrangement reflect a 20th-century European still life tradition focused on studio objects and controlled interior settings. Artist Alberto Muñoz Boquera (b. 1925)
