Description

Charming antique wrought iron sign with scrollwork decoration, bearing the gilt inscription "CAISSE" (cash register) on glass. A beautiful piece of craftsmanship, it displays a lovely original patina with signs of age that give it its unique character. The wrought iron structure is finely crafted with elegant scrolls typical of late 19th or early 20th-century shop signs. The central glass panel reveals the gold-painted and engraved lettering on a light background. This sign was intended to indicate the cash register of a business (grocery store, department store, café, boutique, etc.). Ideal as wall decoration in a charming period interior, a shop, a restaurant, or for a collector of antique objects. Dimensions: Length: 47.5 cm Height: 22 cm Thickness: 3 cm Good overall condition, with wear consistent with age
