Description

A Louis XVI style bedside table in mahogany and mahogany veneer, dating from the late 18th century, with a round shape visible on all sides. It opens with a door revealing two drawers with brass knobs. The white marble top is surrounded by an openwork gallery. The four fluted legs are joined by a white marble shelf, also surrounded by an openwork gallery. They terminate in sabots. A small, unusual bedside table or side table, fully refinished. Space between the shelf and the top: 30 cm. Note: lock and key are later additions.
