Description

A rare wrought iron corner bakery gate attributed to the renowned firm Échalié & Biabaud, active in the late 19th century and known for the quality of its furniture and shop fittings.A very fine example of period ironwork, featuring an elegant decoration of scrolls, spirals, and sinuous lines characteristic of the emerging Art Nouveau style. The composition is particularly harmonious, with a structure designed to fit perfectly into a corner, optimizing space while maintaining a light and airy feel.The openwork, half-moon shaped panels and the richly crafted uprights demonstrate true artisanal skill. A beautiful, even patina preserves the piece's authenticity. Originally designed for displaying breads and pastries, this rack will now find its place in:- a bakery or a shop with character- a kitchen or dining room with authentic
