Description

Elegant Neoclassical Chrome and Brass Side Table - 20th Century. This rare and refined side table, inspired by Neoclassicism, features an architectural structure with four polished chrome cylindrical columns, accented by elegant capitals and rings in gilt brass. The upper apron is adorned with central medallions in antique profiles, one female and one male, framed by a decorative motif of delicately curved metal arches, reminiscent of the decorative vocabulary of Antiquity revisited in the spirit of Maison Jansen or the Hollywood Regency style. The upper surface is framed in polished brass and rests on a perfectly balanced structure. The lower section features a clear glass shelf, encircled by a brass gallery, adding lightness and functionality to the piece. The quality of workmanship is
