Description

Red bohemian red lined glass decanter with engraved 19th century hunting scene decor. Bohemian craftsmanship has known among its greatest qualities, that of shaping glass and crystal as it pleases, to the delight of lovers of tableware. Colorful, full of poetry and highly aesthetic, one can count among the nuggets of this time this red lined glass liqueur carafe from the bohemian craft of the 19th century. It is traversed all along a frieze demonstrating a hunting scene, under a vegetal canopy, deer, dog and game gather around a pond. All this, topped with a round cap decorated with leaves. Far from being innocent, this setting aims to import the beauty of nature and the roughness of hunting into the decor of bourgeois towny houses in a Europe seeking escape into nature, wanting to
