Description

Striking decorative object from the late 19th to early 20th century, crafted in France and characterized by a rich and theatrical composition. The main body features a bold bombe shape, finely modeled with a large central rose in relief. The lateral handles are sculpted in the form of seahorses, adding a dynamic and imaginative element to the design. The combination of floral decoration and marine-inspired motifs creates a highly scenographic and decorative effect typical of refined French production of the period. An eye-catching antique piece, ideal for collectors or as a statement element in elegant interiors. Origin: France Period: Late 19th - Early 20th century Dimensions: 44 x 29 x 34h cm
