Pair Of Meissen Porcelain Figures - Early 19th Century, Germany

950 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Porcelain

Description

Refined pair of porcelain sculptures depicting an elegant female and male figure dressed in 18th-century attire, produced in Germany by the renowned Meissen porcelain manufactory in the early 19th century. The female figure is portrayed gracefully gathering flowers, embodying the romantic and pastoral taste typical of the period. Her male counterpart, conceived as her pendant, wears coordinated historical attire including a long coat, waistcoat, and knee-breeches. The delicate modeling, fine detailing, and expressive gestures reflect the high artistic standards and craftsmanship for which Meissen porcelain is celebrated. A charming and collectible pair, ideal for refined interiors or porcelain connoisseurs. Origin: Germany Period: Early 19th century Manufacturer: Meissen Height: 25
