Description

A superb portrait of a woman painted in 1954 by the Austrian artist Oswald Poelzelberger. This oil on canvas depicts an elegant woman seated in an armchair, wearing a dark dress and a fur stole, adorned with a delicate necklace and a jewel on her lapel. Her gentle expression and direct gaze lend the scene a particularly vibrant and refined presence. The composition highlights the sophistication of mid-20th-century high society: the red velvet armchair, the understated jewelry, and the warm lighting create an intimate and sophisticated atmosphere. The painter's work is distinguished by a realistic treatment of the face, a harmonious palette, and a beautiful mastery of textures, particularly in the fur and fabrics. The work is signed lower left and dated 1954.

Original frame. Dimensions without frame: 90 x
