Description

Small perfume bottle in blue bohemian crystal with 19th century hunting scene decor. The beauty of German & Austrian glass craftsmanship is reflected in these little wonders that brightened the daily lives of Europeans in the 19th century. This small flask or bottle of melodic perfume is interesting: it is a beautiful proof that popular craftsmanship can be beautiful and useful, these bottles being intended to be carried on one's person, in an inner pocket of a coat or jacket. A beautiful shape, easy to take in hand, its main feature, besides its function is its decor: a hunting scene, where a dog rushes on a prey in a forest environment is seen in an acid clear contrasting with the blue of the whole. Perfect for a collector or an amateur of German or Austrian glass crafts from the 19th century, it can still be
