Description

Pair of Art Deco bookends in veined marble and bronze bunnies from the early 20th century. From the Art Deco period (1910-1939), this pair of bookends is authentically Art Deco. Art Deco is the pivotal period in design where geometry and symmetry form with sophistication the object's design, using noble materials derived from nature such as veined marble, and often accompanied by art metals, like here bronze for the rabbit on the left, and the rabbit on the right. Charming and sophisticated, this pair of bookends is poetic, the figure of youth on the left and old age on the right make it a perfect allegory of life. Stable, they will keep your books in place on your bookshelf. Fast & neat shipping in France, Europe & worldwide. Dimensions: Height: 8 cm Length: 12
