Description

A vintage wardrobe with a modernist and minimalist feel, designed by André Sornay, a Lyon-based cabinetmaker and designer, and produced in Lyon by Meubles Sornay around 1960. An iconic design, it features a square tubular metal base with a black lacquered finish, a light-stained beechwood frame, and original lacquered sliding doors in an ochre hue. It reveals a hanging rail on the right side and shelves on the left. Manufactured by Meubles Sornay, circa 1960.
