Description

This delicate scene, signed by Louis Pascin, depicts a young woman elegantly dressed and seated in a springtime landscape bathed in soft light. Holding a light parasol that shades her face, she rests on a blanket during a peaceful moment in the countryside, surrounded by a few personal belongings. The composition stands out for its luminous palette and fluid brushstrokes, conveying both the softness of the atmosphere and the freshness of the natural setting. The sensitive treatment of the face and fabrics, combined with the spontaneity of the painterly texture, gives the work an intimate and poetic charm. Oil on panel, signed lower right, the work measures 52 × 64 cm unframed and 67 × 80 cm with its richly ornamented frame.
