Description

An important French Empire-style armoire, crafted from solid walnut in the mid-19th century. A video of this piece is available on our Instagram account Antiquités Guideau. It opens with two wide, molded-panel doors, framed by turned, solid half-columns resting on square bases. The straight, projecting cornice emphasizes the architectural rigor characteristic of the Empire style. The upper rail is finely carved with scrolling foliage and a stylized central motif, adding a discreet decorative touch while maintaining the style's characteristic sobriety. The whole piece presents a beautiful harmony of proportions and a remarkable presence at 232 cm high. Original Interior: The interior fittings are entirely original: o Three shelves o Three drawers located below the central shelf o Drawers fitted
