Description

Brooch Arthus Bertrand Paris associations of aesthetic designers from France VintageReal accessory & jewel of collection, this brooch is a creation of the Arthus Bertrand workshops in Paris. Its neo antique style is typical of jewelry productions from the mid-century modern period to the middle of the 20th century. This blend of modern technique has a taste for the old is what makes the timeless beauty of this jewel. Originally, it was commissioned by the association of aestheticians & beauticians of France for the Arthus Bertrand workshops in Paris, today, this elegant and charming brooch in colors (mix of gold, red terracotta and turquoise blue) make it a collector's gem! Very good general condition, perfect for collecting. A slight wear on the patina on the right of the letters, cleanable
