Description

A beautiful and generously sized round bronze box, finely finished and inlaid with a lovely, raw green malachite veining, harmoniously assembled to form a handsome powder compact of ample capacity. This beautiful piece is a curiosity for this essential element of beauty and makeup, well-preserved from the mid-19th century, with its attractive veining... Highly decorative, this beautiful box is sure to charm with the quality of this semi-precious stone, so widely used in the early 19th century.
