325 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Width : 7 cm

Description

Antique Indo-Persian silver snuff or pill box dating to around 1900. The oval hinged box is finely decorated in repoussé and chasing with a stylised lioness surrounded by scrolling foliage and a large leaf motif. The background is worked with a punched dotted ground, a decorative technique often found in Indo-Persian metalwork. The border is enriched with small gold enamel highlights which create a striking contrast with the darkened silver surface. The box opens on a hinge to reveal a clean, plain interior and flat base. Two small French silver import marks are present, indicating that the piece entered France through the official customs control for imported silver. A charming and unusual small silver box combining a European form with decorative motifs inspired by Mughal and Persian artistic
