Two Taffeta Valances With Empire/restoration Woven Silk Borders, Circa 1820

1 000 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Linen

Length : 257 cm x 2

Height : 80 cm x 2

Description

Circa 1830 for the assembly, circa 1810 for the borders. France. Two large crimson taffeta valances with red and silver-cream woven silk borders. A Lyon-based model of woven silk dating from the First Empire or the Restoration period. The decoration features large stylized leaves and architectural rosettes in a damask satin with a twill effect. Stiff red cotton lining. A few very slight wears to the borders. Otherwise clean and in very fine antique condition. EUR600 each or EUR1000 for both. Dimensions: Two valances, 80 cm at their widest point, 60 cm at their narrowest, by 257 cm for the larger one and 246 cm for the smaller one.

Dealer

Villa Rosemaine
costumes et textiles anciens
Tel : 06 32 88 38 10

436 route de Plaisance
Toulon 83200