

Ceremonial Lion Head Saber - Blade Engraved "justice Peace Work" Circa 1960

350 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Length : 92

Description

Superb parade officer's sword (circa 1960) in exceptional condition. The nickel-plated metal hilt features a magnificent, finely chiseled lion's head pommel. The black grip is intact with its double silver wire wrapping. The mirror-polished steel blade, with a fuller, is richly acid-etched with scrolling foliage and the motto "JUSTICE PEACE WORK". The sword is in remarkable, near-mint condition, with no oxidation. Sold complete with its nickel-plated steel scabbard. Overall length: 92 cm. Blade length: 80 cm. Free shipping to France and Corsica. Careful packaging. Tracked shipping within 24/48 hours. Payment accepted by credit card, bank transfer, or PayPal.

Dealer

Galerie NAKKAYA

Art - Antiquités - Objets de Collection - Trésors oubliés

Mobile : 0626730929

Clamart 92140