Material : Bronze

Description

Description: Classic 19th-century elegance for your home. Superb figurative sculpture by Théodore Doriot depicting a woman in antique drapery, engrossed in her reading. The Object: An authentic piece from the Napoleon III era. The details of the drapery and hairstyle are finely executed. It features classical attributes (lyre, parchment) symbolizing the Arts or Music. Condition: Beautiful original patina with some signs of age that guarantee its authenticity. (Please specify if the lyre is complete or if a piece is missing). Why we love it: It brings a touch of serenity and prestige. Perfect on a desk, bookshelf, or mantelpiece. Decorating tip: Combine it with modern objects for a trendy "Antique & Chic" contrast.
