Description

Sèvres Biscuit Mantel Garniture - Clock and Two Sculptural Groups - Louis XVI Style - Gilt Bronze - 19th CenturyFine quality biscuit porcelain mantel garniture in white, comprising a central clock flanked by two matching sculptural groups, forming a harmonious decorative ensemble.The central clock features an elaborate biscuit composition with finely modelled putti arranged in a lively and elegant neoclassical scene. The dial is set within a finely chased gilt bronze mount, providing a refined contrast to the matte white porcelain. The sculptural decoration shows playful cherubs integrated into a dynamic rococo-inspired composition influenced by the Louis XVI style.The two side pieces mirror the central theme, each depicting groups of putti engaged with baskets and symbolic attributes,
