Description

Beautiful solid cherrywood wardrobe with two molded doors featuring a scalloped design. It has a straight cornice and rests on cabriole legs in the style of provincial Louis XV furniture. The front displays the beautiful grain of the cherrywood and a warm patina acquired over time. The doors are fitted with long brass handles and close with an antique interior cremone bolt. Traditional construction with panels and rails, and a back made of wide vertical planks. Currently used as a wardrobe, but two interior shelves could be added. A solid and decorative piece of furniture, ideal for a classic interior or country house. Delivery in Metropolitan France (home installation) EUR180. Contact us for more information.
