Description

An elegant bronze sculpture of a pair of gazelles, dating from the 1920s-1930s, in the style of Art Deco animal sculpture. The highly decorative composition plays on a play of curved and stylized lines, typical of the period. The two gazelles are depicted in a harmonious and balanced pose, forming an almost graphic silhouette, legible from both sides (double-sided), allowing for display against a wall or as a centerpiece. The bronze has a nuanced dark brown patina, with slight natural wear and a beautiful texture, attesting to its age. The work is mounted on an antique marble base. A beautiful decorative object, ideal for an Art Deco or modernist interior, or for a collection of 20th-century animal bronzes. Period: circa 1930-1940 Style: Art Deco Material: bronze
