Description

Oil painting on panel (plywood), depicting a portrait of a Labrador in hunting attire, signed lower right, artist's stamp on the back. Late 20th century. Biography/ Franck Le Gall, born in 1959 in Paris. After studying graphic design and advertising at the Charpentier Academy in Paris, Franck Le Gall studied numerous treatises on classical and contemporary painting, continuing his training through contact with painter friends. He then attended the Beaux-Arts in Versailles, specializing in painting and life drawing, and the advanced courses in decorative painting at the Sablé School. For the past twenty years, Franck has devoted himself to figurative painting from his studio in the Perche region. Link / https://francklegall.com/franck-le-pere/
