Description

Oil on canvas by Bruno Emile LAURENT (Born in 1928) Titled "Lapin agile, rue Saint Vincent sous la neige" (Agile Rabbit, Rue Saint Vincent in the Snow) Bruno-Émile Laurent, known as BEL, is a French painter born in 1928. He is considered one of the greatest painters of the "Montmartre School." Several retrospectives of his work have been held. While critics have considered Bruno-Émile Laurent's painting to be inspired by Maurice Utrillo in the vein of poetic realism and post-impressionism, his style has, in recent years, evolved towards a more colorful approach and a narrative composition made up of juxtaposed vignettes on a play of colors.
