Description

Old shops with all their wares hanging outside on the storefronts, women chatting in traditional dress like those still seen in the countryside, tall 18th-century houses with basket-handle arched windows, laundry hanging from the windows--this is definitely the South of France, old Marseille or old Nice, painted here with bold, quickly applied colors. We have little information about this painter, but it's well-defined, cheerful, and bursting with color. Very good condition, never restored.
