Description

Oil on canvas by Carl Walter Liner, a Swiss painter born in 1914 in St. Gallen and who died in 1997 in the same city. Signed lower right. Good condition. Dimensions : 40 x 30 cm. Son of the renowned Carl August Liner, whose disciple he quickly became, Carl Walter Liner's youth was marked by numerous travels to Egypt, France, Algeria, Spain, Italy, and Corsica. He divided his time between his studios in Paris, Fontvieille (Provence), and Appenzell (Switzerland). His encounters and friendships with Vlaminck, Braque, and especially Zadkine, Schneider, and Erich Heckel influenced his work: large abstract canvases, yet imbued with figurative elements and brimming with movement. Carl Walter Liner's works were primarily exhibited in Switzerland, Germany, France, and the United
