Description

Important decorative porcelain vases in the style of the renowned Sèvres manufactory, made in the 20th century. With their slender baluster shape, these vases feature a rich decoration on a deep blue ground enhanced with scrolling foliage, floral motifs, and finely gilded ornaments. The body is adorned with a central polychrome cartouche depicting a military scene inspired by Napoleonic iconography, featuring Napoleon Bonaparte on horseback surrounded by his officers. The side handles, decorated with stylized ram's heads, and the square bases, decorated with garlands and mascarons, are made of chased and gilded bronze, lending the whole a particularly elegant decorative presence.
